

Weekly Newsletter

7th March 2025

This week has been full of sunshine and fun! The whole school made a fantastic effort with their colourful costumes and plate decorations for World Book Day! Three of our Year 4 pupils organised a 'Design Your Own Book' competition - they designed and marketed their idea, judged the entries and gave prizes for both the winners and everyone else that took part. The whole school will be able to enjoy their stories in the library before the authors take them home. I am looking forward to inviting parents and carers in for the rest of our class sharing assemblies this term.

Easter Eggstravaganza & Muffi Day

Friday 4th April

Parents and carers are invited to join us on Friday 4th April at 1.30 pm for our Easter Eggstravaganza.

Children can wear muffi in exchange for a £1 donation. Tea/coffee available £1.00.

World Book Day

This week on 6th March, the whole school celebrated World Book Day. They all got to dress up as their favourite book characters from stories they like to read. They could also come in their pyjamas to show that reading at nighttime is a good thing to do. They loved how they could read so much during World Book Day. Please see page 3 for photographs.
