

Weekly Newsletter

3rd November 2023

Welcome back to the second half of the Autumn term. I hope you all enjoyed the week's break.

During Black History Month, which ended this week, children each learned and did writing inspired by significant Black, British females, to link with this year's theme: Saluting Our Sisters.

Reception - Yolanda Brown, OBE

Year 1 - Mary Seacole

Year 2 - Grace Nichols

Year 3 - Alex Scott, MBE

Year 4 - Jess Carter

Year 5 - Dr Maggie Aderin-Pocock, MBE

Year 6 - Doreen Lawrence, OBE

Why not find out about the contributions to British society these wonderful women have made/make and what inspired them

We look forward to showcasing the achievements of the important women in a whole school display, which is soon to be curated.

Mrs Jacki Keogh, Head of School

Orienteering

Ten children from year 4 went to Lloyd Park on Wednesday to complete some Orienteering Activities. We had to use our mapping skills in order to find points around the park, and then answer a series of questions.

The children did really well, especially as it was very windy!

A big Thank You to Mr Packham for organising and leading this event .
