5th July 2024

The children in Year 5 & Year 6 returned from their residential in Norfolk - everyone had a fantastic time and showed resilience stepping out of their comfort zones and developing the skills in Teamwork especially Communication, CoOperation and Encouragement. Well done to everyone!

Mrs Jacki Keogh | Head of School

Pre-Loved Uniform

Items donated such as school sweatshirts, jumpers, cardigans, trousers, skirts and t-shirts will be available for re-homing at the Sponsored Walk and after school each day until the end of term.

Any donations (pay what you think they're worth) will be added to monies for children's new playground equipment.

SEND Dads

We would like to share with you this very exciting event for Dads of children with Special Educational Needs and Disabilities in London.

On Saturday 31st August from 1pm until 4pm at Browns Brasserie & Bar, Covent Garden where you will enjoy a two-course lunch* as you meet and chat with other dads in a lovely venue. Please click on the link below for further information:
